

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Bulletin for November, 1953

THE SIR ROBERT FALCONER LECTURESHIP

LADY VIOLET BONHAM CARTER, D.B.E.

Will deliver this year's Sir Robert Falconer Lecture on

BRITISH DEMOCRACY TODAY AND YESTERDAY
—THE CHALLENGE TO THE INDIVIDUAL

in Convocation Hall

in two parts

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10

and

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11

at 8.30 p.m.

Staff, Students and the Public are invited

Admission free

ERRATUM

Please note change in hour of Department of Psychology lecture by Dr. Bergmann, November 19th, to 4 p.m.

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2016 with funding from
University of Toronto

<https://archive.org/details/bulletin195311>

COMING EVENTS

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1st

Royal Ontario Museum—Division of Education film showing in Theatre and gallery talk. 2.30 p.m.

The Art Gallery of Toronto—Concert by Margot Rowland, pianist. 3 p.m.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd

Organ Recital by Frederick Silvester. Convocation Hall. 5 p.m.

School of Graduate Studies, Department of Chemical Engineering—First of two lectures by Dr. Irwin A. Pearl, Research Associate, The Institute of Paper Chemistry, Appleton, Wisconsin. "Aromatic Organic Chemicals from Spent Sulfite Liquor Lignin." Room 2034, Wallberg Building. 4.15 p.m.

Hart House Theatre—Vic Bob. Also November 3 and 4 at 8.30 p.m.

Toronto Field Naturalists' Club—"Man and Nature Through the Ages." Professor T. F. McIlwraith. Museum Theatre. 8 p.m.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3rd

School of Graduate Studies, Department of Chemical Engineering—"Medical and Biological Applications of Vanillic Acid Esters and Related Compounds." Dr. Irwin A. Pearl. Room 2034, Wallberg Building. 4.15 p.m.

School of Graduate Studies, Department of Slavic Studies—"Russian Classics in the Soviet Union." Professor E. J. Simmons, Columbia University. Room 105, Flavell House. 5 p.m.

Academy of Medicine—Stated Meeting. "Diagnosis and Management of Benign Lesions of the Oesophagus." Dr. Gabriel Tucker, Professor of Oesophagology, Bronchology and Surgical Laryngology, Graduate School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania. Osler Hall. 8.30 p.m. Dinner at University Club. 6.45 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4th

The Art Gallery of Toronto—Open Night. "My Painting"—a lecture by Dr. A. Y. Jackson; Demonstration of Jewellery making by Nancy Meek; Film: "Varley"; Guided tours. 8 p.m.

Athletics—Senior and Intermediate Soccer. O.A.C. at Varsity. 2 and 3.30 p.m.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5th

University College—Lecture Series. "Literature and Religion." Professor F. V. Winnett. West Hall, University College. 5 p.m.

Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto—Special Concert Series sponsored by Dr. Edward Johnson. Suzanne Bloch, Lutenist, Singer to the Lute, Player of Virginals, Recorders. Concert Hall. 8.30 p.m.

Athletics—Senior Interfaculty Harrier Meet. High Park.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6th

French Ciné-Club of University College—"La Belle et la bête." Museum Theatre. 4 p.m. and 8.15 p.m.

Hart House Theatre—"Dentantics." Also Saturday. 8.30 p.m.

Athletics—Intermediate Football. O.A.C. at Varsity. 2 p.m.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7th

- Royal Canadian Institute—Presidential Address, "Anaesthesia: Ancient and Modern." Dr. G. H. W. Lucas. Convocation Hall. 8.15 p.m.
- Victoria College Alumnae Association—Luncheon. Guest speaker, Professor H. N. Frye. Annesley Hall. 1 p.m.
- The Art Gallery of Toronto—Sale of Canadian paintings and sculptures presented by the Women's Committee. Through November 15.
- Athletics—Soccer. McGill at Varsity. 12 o'clock noon. Senior Football. Western at Varsity. 2 p.m.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8th

- The Art Gallery of Toronto—Concert by John Vickers, tenor; Earle Moss, accompanist. 3 p.m.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10th

- The Sir Robert Falconer Lecture—Part 1. (See Front Cover).
- Hart House Theatre—University College French Club presentation. 8.30 p.m.
- Toronto Aquarium Society—Meeting. Room 64, Museum. 8.30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11th.

- The Sir Robert Falconer Lecture—Part 2. (See Front Cover).
- Service of Remembrance—Soldiers' Tower. 10.40 a.m.
- Royal Ontario Museum Theatre—New Play Society's Production, "Duet for Two Hands" by Mary Hayley Bell. Through November 28 at 8.30 p.m.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12th

- University College—Lecture Series. "Literature and Learning." Professor R. J. Getty. West Hall, University College. 5 p.m.
- Hart House Theatre—U.C. Follies. Also November 13 and 14 at 8.30 p.m.
- The Art Gallery of Toronto—Open Night (instead of Wednesday). "Thomas Gainsborough," an illustrated talk by Mary Woodall, Curator of Paintings, Birmingham City Museum and Art Gallery; Film: "Journey into History"; Guided tours. 8 p.m.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13th

- Fall Convocation—Convocation Hall. 8 p.m.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14th

- Royal Canadian Institute—"Radar and Weather." Dr. J. S. Marshall, Associate Professor of Physics, McGill University. Convocation Hall. 8.15 p.m.
- Athletics—Senior and Intermediate Harrier Meet at Varsity.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15th

- Royal Ontario Museum—Division of Education film showing and gallery talk. 2.30 p.m.
- The Art Gallery of Toronto—Concert by Sheila Henig, pianist. 3 p.m.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16th

- Organ Recital by Dr. Charles Peaker. Convocation Hall. 5 p.m.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17th

- School of Nursing—Official Opening. 4 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18th

The Art Gallery of Toronto—Open Night. "My Paintings," an illustrated talk by Dr. A. Y. Jackson; Demonstration in Handblocked Textiles by Arnfield-Passano; Film: "Arthur Lismer." 8 p.m.

Hart House Theatre—Skule Nite. Also November 19, 20 and 21 at 8.30 p.m.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19th

University College—Lecture Series. "Literature and Science." Professor F. E. L. Priestley. West Hall, University College. 5 p.m.

Department of Psychology—"The Logic of Psychology." Professor Gustav Bergmann, University of Iowa. Room 6, University College. 5 p.m.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21st

Royal Canadian Institute—"The Archaeology of the Iroquois." Professor J. N. Emerson. Convocation Hall. 8.15 p.m.

Athletics—Possible Intercollegiate Football playoff. 2 p.m.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 22nd

The Art Gallery of Toronto—Concert by Roma Butler, mezzo-soprano; George Brough accompanist. 3 p.m.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24th

Archaeological Institute of America—"The City of Osiris in Upper Egypt." Miss Winifred Needler. Museum Theatre. 4.30 p.m.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26th

University College—Lecture Series. "Literature and Society." Professor Barker Fairley. West Hall, University College. 5 p.m.

Academy of Dentistry—Winter Clinic. Royal York Hotel.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27th

Athletics—Hockey. University of Montreal at Varsity. 8 p.m.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 28th

Royal Canadian Institute—"New Horizons in the Prevention of Alcoholism." Dr. R. Gordon Bell, Medical Director of Shadow Brook Health Foundation Limited and Willowdale Hospital. Convocation Hall. 8.15 p.m.

Hart House Theatre Production—"The Male Animal." Directed by Robert Gill. Through December 5th at 8.30 p.m.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 29th

Royal Ontario Museum—Division of Education film showing and gallery talk. 2.30 p.m.

The Art Gallery of Toronto—Concert by Andrew Benac, violinist; Carol Wright, accompanist. 3 p.m.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30th

Organ Recital by Gerald Bales. Convocation Hall. 5 p.m.

EXHIBITIONS

Royal Ontario Museum

The special "West-East" exhibition will continue throughout the month.

The Sigmund Samuel Canadiana Gallery

The exhibition, "Historical Portraits and Recent Acquisitions" opens on November 11.

The Art Gallery of Toronto

The "A. Y. Jackson Retrospective" and "Canadian Crafts" exhibitions continue to November 22.

The "Royal Canadian Academy" and "J. W. Morrice" exhibitions open on November 27 and continue to January 10.

Victoria College

Pictures by Phyllis Janes will be on view in Alumni Hall from November 10 to December 11.

NEWS ITEMS

Staff Notes

At the Ontario Classical Association's meeting on October 10, papers were delivered by Professor M. D. C. Tait on "Plato's Imagery", and by Professor W. P. Wallace on "The Athenian Dole."

In a special broadcast to Italy over the C.B.C., Professor Emilio Goggio spoke on "One Hundred Years of Italian Studies in the University of Toronto" and Mr. J. A. Molinaro commented on Italian social activities among our students.

K. L. Levy attended the Sixth Congress of the Instituto Internacional de Literatura Iberoamericana in Mexico City and Guadalajara, Jalisco, from August 31 to September 5, and read a paper on "Tomás Carrasquilla y la religión."

Professor E. L. Fackenheim read a paper on "Schelling's Philosophy of the Literary Arts" at the English Institute meeting held at Columbia University, September 9-12.

Professor H. Mehlberg was invited to read a paper on the present situation in the Philosophy of Science at the meetings of the International Congress for Science and Freedom held at the University of Hamburg in July. This paper, entitled, "The Range and Limits of Scientific Method" was read to the plenary session of the Congress on July 26.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Psychological Association at Queen's University in May, Professor J. D. Ketchum was made a Fellow of the Association, and was also appointed editor of the Canadian Journal of Psychology, succeeding Professor John A. Long. Professor Ketchum addressed the biennial convention of the Canadian Federation of Music Teachers' Associations at the Royal York Hotel on July 6 on teacher-pupil relations.

Professor William Line was, for the second year, appointed honorary president of the Canadian Psychological Association at their annual meeting. Professor Line spent six weeks in Bangkok, Thailand, this summer, on a UNESCO project aimed at developing a Research and Training Centre in Psychology at their University. Six Thailand students are spending this year in post-graduate study at the Department of Psychology and the Institute of Child Study, as Fellows of UNESCO.

Professor C. R. Myers attended the Play Therapy Seminar in St. Thomas, September 12-16.

Professor E. A. Bott, C. R. Myers, E. W. Bovard Jr., H. O. Steer, D. C. Williams and A. H. Shephard attended the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association in Cleveland, September 4-10.

Professor B. E. Shore addressed the University Women's Club of Oshawa on October 14, on "Trieste and Other Balkan Problems."

Professor J. R. Dymond attended the following meetings during the summer: Colloquium of the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature, Copenhagen; International Zoological Congress, Copenhagen; International Limnological Congress, Cambridge.

While on leave of absence from January to June, Professor J. A. Irving was Visiting Fellow in Philosophy at Yale University. During his residence in the United States he gave the annual Phi Beta Kappa lecture at Syracuse University on March 26, on "Values and the Social Sciences"; read a paper before the New York Philosophical Circle on "Philosophical Trends in Canada"; and spoke at Hartford and Bridgeport, Connecticut, under the auspices of the Auerbach Foundation on "Universal Human Values" and "The Philosophy of the United Nations."

Professor W. H. Trethewey has been elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, England, in recognition of his work in Anglo-Norman Language and Literature.

Professor Northrop Frye addressed the Canadian Library Association at Ottawa on August 24 on the subject, "Canada as a Literary Field," and attended the English Institute at Columbia University, September 9-12, in the capacity of chairman of the Institute.

Dr. George Edison has been elected the Dominion Fellow at St. John's College Cambridge, for 1954, and will leave for Cambridge early in January.

Dr. W. T. E. Kennett has been awarded a Fellowship by the Royal Society of Canada for a year's study in France.

Professor W. S. Rogers has been elected a member of the Humanities Research Council of Canada.

Professor D. K. Andrews spent three months in Palestine during the past summer, engaged in travel and archaeological research.

Principal J. S. Glen visited a number of leading theological schools of Britain and Europe during the summer, making a special study of their methods of theological education.

Dr. J. V. Basmajian has returned from a six-months' leave of absence, which he spent in Britain, attached to the Department of Physical Medicine, St. Thomas's Hospital, London, where he furthered his investigations in Electro-myography. In July Dr. Basmajian presented a paper to the Anatomical Society of Great Britain and Ireland in Liverpool, and at the end of August, he attended the first world conference on Medical Education in London. Dr. Basmajian also visited most of the medical schools in Britain during his stay.

J. L. Yen presented a paper entitled "Wave Propagation in a Non-Homogeneous Medium" at the Canadian Section of the Union Radio Scientifique Internationale (URSI), in Ottawa on October 6.

Mrs. J. Butterfield was recently appointed national chairman of the consumer research department of the Canadian Association of Consumers.

Dr. M. Doreen Smith was invited by the Western New York section of International Food Technologists to present a paper on "Educating Food Chemists."

Professor M. Doreen Smith and J. Butterfield attended the annual meeting of the Institute of Food Technologists held in Boston in June.

Dean J. W. B. Sisam has been elected vice-president of the Canadian Institute of Forestry, and was recently appointed chairman of the Committee on Professional Recognition, Southern Ontario Section of the Canadian Institute of Forestry.

A. D. Hall has been appointed to the following positions: secretary-treasurer of the Forestry Alumni Association, and vice-chairman of the Southern Ontario Section of the Canadian Institute of Forestry.

Professor A. S. Michell has been appointed to the Board of Trustees, Eastern Canadian Section, Forest Products Research Society.

During November and December, Dr. Boyd Neel will conduct the Dutch Radio Orchester, the City of Birmingham Orchestra, and will also conduct a concert in Westminster Abbey in aid of the restoration fund.

Dr. Ettore Mazzoleni will conduct the first radio performance of Professor Richard Johnston's first symphony with the C.B.C. Symphony Orchestra on November 23 at 10.15 p.m.

Two songs by Godfrey Ridout were sung by Lois Marshall at the all-Canadian concert held in Carnegie Hall, New York, on October 16.

The Great Lakes Society of Orthodontists is holding its annual meeting at Grand Rapids, Michigan, November 2-4. Faculty of Dentistry members taking part in the program are: Drs. G. P. Copeland, J. T. Crouch, M. R. Culbert, R. A. Erickson, G. V. Fisk, B. Hemrend, D. H. Jenkins, D. J. E. Mitchell and H. W. Shanks.

Professor C. E. Hendry addressed the Michigan Welfare League's annual meeting on "Next Frontiers in Social Welfare." He was also consultant to an editorial planning conference of the Association Press in New York City on a working paper on "Leadership."

Professor J. S. Morgan has been appointed chairman of the National Disaster Committee and member of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Red Cross.

Professor M. G. Ross gave the opening address at Madsen's Folk School in Markham on "The Social Structure of the Kibbutz," which was based on his recent experience in Israel under UNESCO sponsorship.

Faculty and Department Notes

The "Neighbourhood Astronomers" met at the David Dunlop Observatory on October 2 and 3 for their 70th meeting, and the first held in Canada. Forty-one visitors from Observatories in the Eastern United States and Canada attended. Papers on recent astronomical conferences were given by Professor J. J. Nassau of the Warner and Swasey Observatory, Professor Donald A. MacRae of the David Dunlop Observatory, Professor M. P. Savedoff of the University of Rochester, and Professor Paul Herget of the University of Cincinnati. A dinner in Burwash Hall concluded the meeting.

Professor Baron B. von Richthofen gave an address under the auspices of the Department of Slavic Studies on October 20, entitled "Early Home of the Slavs."

The Faculty of Music is giving more active support and guidance to the University Symphony Orchestra and Chorus, which continue under the sponsorship of the Students' Administrative Council. The Orchestra is conducted by Professor R. A. Rosevear, and Professor Richard Johnston is directing the Chorus.

The Sixth Annual Instrumental Music Clinic was held in Jarvis Collegiate on October 23 and 24, under the direction of Professor Robert Rosevear. Guest conductor was Joseph Skornicka, Supervisor, Instrumental Music, Milwaukee, Wisconsin Schools.

The Faculty of Dentistry will conduct a continuation course for dental graduates in the subject of Pedodontics, November 23-25. The course will be under the general direction of Drs. S. A. MacGregor and G. Nikiforuk. A continuation course in the subject of Dental Radiology will be held from November 30 to December 4, and will be directed by Dr. J. E. Moser. Dr. H. M. Worth will be guest lecturer.

The School of Social Work Alumni Association will hold a reception for the graduating class at 5.30 p.m. in Falconer Hall, prior to the Fall Convocation on November 13.

During the Spring of 1953 Professor Dorothy Jackson completed a book entitled "Three Schools," which contained a historical sketch of the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression, the Margaret Eaton School of Physical Education, and the University of Toronto School of Physical and Health Education. The book was commissioned by the Margaret Eaton School Alumnae Association, and was distributed to Alumnae members with a request for donations to the Bursary Fund. Some $700 has been received and is being used for the benefit of women students of the School of Physical and Health Education.

Appointments, Promotions, Retirements

Professor E. J. Pratt has retired with the rank of professor emeritus of English, Victoria College.

In Trinity College, Mrs. M. M. Kirkwood has been promoted to the rank of professor in the Department of English. M. T. Wilson has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor. Dr. D. R. G. Owen has been appointed head of the Department of Religious Knowledge. Professor R. K. Hicks, who retired as Dean of Arts and Registrar of Trinity College last Spring, is now professor emeritus, Department of French. J. R. L. Sidgwick has been appointed director of Church Music. Miss K. M. Darroch has been appointed principal of St. Hilda's College, dean of women at Trinity College, and associate professor of Religious Knowledge.

S. Stykolt has resigned from the Institute of Business Administration and has been appointed lecturer in the Department of Political Economy. J. W. Harvey, formerly of the Department of Economics, University of British Columbia, has been appointed lecturer in the Department of Political Economy. G. Goundrey, formerly Economist with the Treasury Department, Provincial Government of Ontario, has been appointed lecturer, but is remaining as Consultant to the Advisory Committee to the Minister of Lands and Forests. Professor P. A. Reynolds of the University College of Wales at Aberystwyth is a visiting professor for the Michaelmas term.

Professor Robert Rosevear has been appointed to the newly-created post of assistant to the director of the Faculty of Music.

The Rev. Dr. William Manson, recently retired from New College, University of Edinburgh, is guest professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis at Knox College during the present session.

The University of Toronto Library

New titles added to the Library since September 15, 1953, are:

Akademie der Wissenschaften, Berlin. Kl. für technische Wissenschaften.

Abhandlungen.

Australia. Commonwealth scientific and industrial research organization.

Soil publication

British Museum (Natural History). Historical series

Carnegie institute of technology. Studies in English

Germany. Bundesgerichtshof: Entscheidungen des Bundesgerichtshofes in Zivilsachen

Historisk tidskrift

Journal of personality

Newfoundland. Geological survey. Reports

New Mexico, University of. Publications in economics

Ochanomizu University. Natural science report

Osaka university, Faculty of science. Scientific works. Annual report

Pharmaceutical bulletin

La Ricerca scientifica

Society for theatre research. Publications

United States. Library of Congress. Maps and atlases

Universidad central de Venezuela. Anales

Yokohama mathematical journal

The University of Toronto Press

Recent publications include:

Letters in Canada: 1952. Edited by J. R. MacGillivray. $1.50

Elementary Experimental Chemistry. By M. W. Lister and W. A. E. McBryde. $3.00

University College: A Portrait, 1853-1953. Edited by Claude T. Bissell. $2.50

Meteorological Instruments. By W. E. Knowles Middleton and A. F. Spilhaus. $11.50

The Phoenix, VII, (3). 75 cents

University of Toronto Quarterly, XXIII, (1). 75 cents

Other Books Published

Selected Poetry and Prose of William Blake. Edited, with an Introduction, by Northrop Frye. Random House (Modern Library). $1.50.

Copy for the December issue of the BULLETIN should reach the Publicity Department, Room 226, Simcoe Hall (Midway 6611, local 51) by November 18.

University College

Thursday Afternoon Lecture Series at 5 o'clock
in West Hall, University College

University College, The First Fifty Years Principal Emeritus M. W. Wallace	Oct. 22
Literature and Philosophy Professor F. H. Anderson	Oct. 29
Literature and Religion Professor F. V. Winnett	Nov. 5
Literature and Learning Professor R. J. Getty	Nov. 12
Literature and Science Professor F. E. L. Priestley	Nov. 19
Literature and Society Professor Barker Fairley	Nov. 26
University College, The Last Fifty Years Principal F. C. A. Jeanneret	Dec. 3